Abhaar Diwas

'A teacher affects eternity, he can never tell where his influence stops'

Teachers nourish the skills and talents of their pupils, chisel their persona and lead them to the success. To acknowledge the contribution of such selfless personnel to the society and nation, Teachers' Day is celebrated in India every year on 5th September. Students of Bal Bharati Public School always portray their gratitude to their worthy teachers by offering a colourful cultural program. This year too they are welcomed to execute the best of their abilities in the form of:

Solo Song

Group song

Poem

Speech

Role-play
